ex-King Michael and do not recognize the present Soviet-dominated government of Rumania headed by Pertu Groza. In addition to sending congratulations to Michael on his wedding to Princess Anne, the local Association also sent letters to the office of King Michael and to leader of the Rumanian Peasant Party who escaped to the United-States.

25X1A

([REDACTED]) The letter from the Association to Michael was reported by the press, as well as his answer, which expressed thanks and good wishes.)

5. Because the new Soviet-dominated Rumanian Government is not recognized by the Central Government of China, old Rumanian passports are not recognized in China and Rumanian citizens are registered with the Chinese Foreign Pap Chia Office as "stateless of Rumanian origin."
6. Some local Rumanians feel that at present the Soviet authorities and the new Rumanian Government are conducting negotiations regarding Rumanian citizens in the the Far East and that Rumanians residing in China will be registered with the various Soviet Consulates. Because of this, the Executive Committee of the Rumanian Association of China, during confidential meetings, decided to start proceedings with the Chinese authorities regarding the establishment of a "Rumanian Emigres' Association." Until registration, the Executive Committee does not have official meetings; however, it is proposed that, after receiving a permit from the Chinese Social Affairs Bureau, the Executive Committee will publish a notification for Rumanian citizens to join the new "Rumanian Emigres' Association."
7. The Rumanian Association of China is represented on the Coordinating Committee connected with the IRO by J. (I.) A. Zabulonis, Acting Lithuanian Consul (not recognized by China), who represents 18 small groups. About 27 members of the Rumanian Association of China receive relief from the IRO.
